

Case Study

How a petroleum major implemented an Integrated Enterprise System to meet its growing needs

Integrated Enterprise System for a petroleum major

Business Situation

The customer is part of a major petroleum group, comprising nearly 16 group companies. Based in Abu Dhabi, the customer has over 150 filling stations and a host of retail activities for petroleum products. The customer's Finance, HRMS, Payroll and Sales functions were being managed by an accounting system. To meet the growing needs of the organization, the customer wanted to implement an Integrated Enterprise System.

Mahindra Satyam's Role

Mahindra Satyam's role involved implementing the latest version and usage latest Oracle database with advanced features. The role also involved using advanced server and PC configurations for the implementation, implementing the latest data backup features, using advanced reporting tools, integrating with over 20 subsystems etc.

Business Benefits

- Increased speed of receipt processing and remittance in banks
- Reduced the number of manual entries
- Enabled online reporting and analysis
- Automated personnel services
- Online training catalog and nominations made possible
- Improved human capital management

For further information please write to rfi@mahindrasatyam.net.